

This will certify that the attendance on the Hospital stated in the above account is correct and that such attendance was also fully satisfactory, the Hospital being kept as clean as possible and I do further certify that the dead attendances was required by myself there being one or two patients in a dangerous state and without any physician to attend upon them therefore I now swear that the account is just and